

RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION FOR CITY OF CONVERSE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

AS AMENDED ON June 11, 2019

STATE OF TEXAS           §

COUNTY OF BEXAR       §

CITY OF CONVERSE     §

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED natural persons, not less than three in number, each of whom is at least 18 years of age, and each of whom is a qualified elector of the City of Converse, Texas (which is a duly established home rule municipality under the Texas Constitution and the City's Home Rule Charter), acting as incorporators of a public instrumentality and nonprofit development corporation (the "Corporation" ) under the "Development Corporation Act of 1979", as amended, with the approval of the City Council (the "Council") of the City of Converse, Texas (the "City") as evidenced by the Ordinance attached as Attachment "A" and made a part of these Articles for all purposes, do hereby adopt the following Amended Articles of Incorporation for the Corporation:

ARTICLE ONE
NAME

The name of the Corporation is the "City of Converse Economic Development Corporation."

ARTICLE TWO AUTHORIZATION

The Corporation is a nonprofit corporation, and is an industrial development corporation under the Development Corporation Act of 1979, Texas Revised Civil Statutes Annotated Article 5190.6, now codified at Chapter 505, Tex. Local Gov't Code, (the "Act"), and shall be governed by Section 4B of said Act, as now existing or as may be amended.

ARTICLE THREE DURATION

Subject to the provisions of Article Fourteen hereof; the period of duration of the Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE FOUR
PURPOSE AND LIMITATIONS

- A. The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or any future tax code. The Corporation is organized exclusively for the purposes of benefitting and accomplishing the public purposes of, and to act on behalf of, the City, and the specific purposes for which the Corporation is organized, and may issue bonds, notes, and other forms of debt instruments, and to acquire, maintain, lease, and sell property, and interests therein, on behalf of the City as authorized by Section 4B of the Act to promote economic development with the City and the State of Texas in order to eliminate unemployment and under employment and to promote and encourage employment and the public welfare of, for, and on behalf of the City. The Corporation may finance and undertake any such project, subject to the regulations and limitations set forth in Section 4B of the Act and an election held in the City on January 15, 2000. The Corporation is authorized to issue bonds as permitted by the Act, provided, however, no bonds may be issued by the Corporation and no project may be financed with bond proceeds or other revenues of the Corporation unless such bonds or projects are first approved by the City Council. The Corporation is a constituted authority and a public instrumentality within the meaning of the regulations of the Act, the United States Treasury Department, the rulings of the Internal Revenue Service prescribed and promulgated pursuant to Sections 103 and 141 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the Corporation is authorized to act on behalf of the City as provided in these Articles of Incorporation.

- B. In the fulfillment of its corporate purpose, the Corporation shall have and may exercise the powers described in paragraph A. of this Article, together with all of the other powers granted to the corporations that are incorporated under the Act and that are governed by Section 4B thereof, and to the extent not in conflict with the Act, the Corporation shall additionally have and may exercise all of the rights, powers, privileges, authorities, and functions given by the general laws of the State of Texas to nonprofit corporations under the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, as amended, Texas Rules of Civil Statutes Annotated Article 1396-101, et seq.
- C. The Corporation shall have the purposes and powers permitted by the Act pursuant to the authority granted in Article III, Section 52a of the Texas Constitution, but the Corporation does not have, and shall not exercise the powers of sovereignty of the City, including the power to tax (except for the power to receive and use the sales and use taxes specified in Section 4B of the Act) and the police power, except that the Corporation shall have and may exercise the power of eminent domain when the exercise thereof is approved by the City Council. However, for the purposes of the Texas Tort Claims Act (Subchapter A., Chapter 101, Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code), the Corporation is a governmental unit and its actions are governmental functions.
- D. No bonds, notes or other debt instruments or other obligations, contracts, or agreements of the Corporation are or shall ever be deemed to be or constitute the contracts, agreements bonds, notes, or other debt instruments or other obligations or the lending of credit, or a grant of the public money or things of value, of; belonging to, or by the State of Texas, the City, or any other political corporation, subdivision or agency of the State of Texas, or a pledge of the faith and credit of any of them. Any and all of such contracts, agreements, bonds, notes, and other debt instruments and other obligations, contracts and agreements shall be payable solely and exclusively from the revenues and funds received by the Corporation from the sources authorized by Section 4B of the Act and from such other sources as may be otherwise lawfully available and belonging to the Corporation from time to time.

ARTICLE FIVE FINANCING

- A. Before the consummation of the sale and delivery of any bonds, notes, or other forms of debt instruments, the Corporation shall obtain approval by the City Council.
- B. In the exercise of the powers of the Corporation, the Corporation may enter into loan, lease, trust, or other agreements as authorized by the Act that are necessary and appropriate to the fulfillment of the public purpose of the Corporation, all of which agreements, and the specific uses, and the methods of withdrawal and expenditure of the proceeds of the bonds, notes, or other debt instruments, and must be included as a part of the approval process of the Council required by paragraph A above.
- C. In the exercise of the powers of the Corporation, the Corporation may not enter into any loan, lease, trust, or other agreement the effect of which would grant, convey, transfer, mortgage, encumber, pledge or assign a security interest or any interest in any property owned by the City. Any agreement entered into by the Corporation shall contain language substantially to the effect that any grant, conveyance, transfer, mortgage, encumbrance, pledge or assignment of property owned by the City is prohibited.

ARTICLE SIX MEMBERS

The Corporation has no members and is a non stock corporation.

ARTICLE SEVEN SALES TAX

Upon receipt from the City of the proceeds of the sales and use tax imposed under Section 4B of the Act, the Corporation may use the proceeds as permitted by the Act as now existing or as may be amended and these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE EIGHT AMENDMENT

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended at any time as provided in the Act, to make any changes and add any provisions which might have been included in the Articles of Incorporation in the first instance. Any amendment may be accomplished in either of the following manners:

- A. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may, by majority vote at a meeting, approve proposed amendments to be forwarded to the City Council for consideration. The Executive Director shall then file with the Council a written application requesting approval of the amendments to the Articles of Incorporation, specifying in such application the amendments proposed to be made. The Council shall consider such application and, if it shall find and determine that it is advisable that the proposed amendments be made, it shall approve the form of the proposed amendments by resolution. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may then amend the Articles of Incorporation by delivering such amendments to the Secretary of State; or,

- B. The Council may, at its sole discretion, and at any time, amend these Articles of Incorporation and alter or change the structure, organization, programs or activities of the Corporation, or terminate or dissolve the Corporation (subject to the provisions of the Act, and subject to any limitation provided by the constitutions and laws of the impairment of contract entered into by the Corporation) by resolution adopting the amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation or articles of dissolution at a meeting of the Council, and delivering articles of amendment or dissolution to the Secretary of State, as provided in the Act. Restated Articles of Incorporation may be filed with the Secretary of State as provided in the Act.
